FRED D. GRANT'S LETTER

STATEMENTS WHICH CONTRADICT
THOSE MADE BY W. R. O.

It would also appear that with all of Ward's protestations of innocence he is badly mixed—General Grant Lost All—A Few Facts and Figures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—W. A. Farrington, counsel for the Grant boys, learned a few days ago that Ford Ward was making statements regarding their alleged profits. He wrote Col. Grant making inquiries about the facts and received a reply of which the following are extracts:

"DEAR SIR—Your letter asking about a rumor that Ward has stated that he paid father $200,000 in excess of what he (father) put in the firm of Grant & Ward, and paid me $200,000 in excess of what had deposited with or loaned to him (Ward), has been received. As to father's accounts I have only to say that he put into the firm of Grant & Ward $100,000 of his own money; had on deposit there $100,000 of my mother's money; $100,000 belonging to the fund raised in Philadelphia to pay for the house No. 3 East Sixty-sixth street; $50,000 from the sale of the Long Branch cottage, built while father was president; $10,000 from the sale of the Anglo-American bank stock that mother had owned some years, and $10,000 from savings from her income and allowances that father had given her, and $150,000 he had obtained from Mr. Vanderbilt."

"My father's expenses were about $4,000 per month, $1,000 of which he allowed my mother for maintaining their home; $500 he gave in charity and $500 he kept for his own use, but gave out of this way in presents. My father's income was not a member of the firm of Grant & Ward (after the $250,000 fund was raised) was greater than he wanted to spend. Father made no investments while in the firm, except those he left with the firm, and Mr. Ward had charge of the securities."

"As for myself, I took from the firm about—dollars less than I put in. What I did take out was paid as profits to those whose money I was using, except so much as it took to support my family in a modest way. I had $75,000 when I first knew Mr. Ward, now I owe $500,000 through his treachery. I have nearly every check I ever drew in my life, a full history of every transaction I ever entered into and if anybody who has any right to inquire into my affairs wants to know about any or all of my transactions my books are open to him. I was not a member of the firm, but I believe I could have been deceived just as my father and brother were. I had been one of the partners, I can truly say that I regret that I did not occupy the place that my father had in this firm, for I believe his disease was brought on and his death hastened by the treachery of these men. Very truly yours, "F. D. GRANT."

U. S. Grant Jr.
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Mr. U. S. Grant Jr., was seen at his farm, four miles from Purdy's Station, on the Harlem railroad, by a reporter. After carefully reading Ward's remarkable statement to the morning's Herald, he said:

"I have nothing further to say about this man. I am far from surprised that he would maliciously attempt to besmirch the name of the family that he so treacherously ruined. Should Ward escape a felon's fate it would then perhaps be time for me to take more active steps."

Murder in a Masonic Lodge—The Guilty Escapes—The Innocent on Trial.
FURNING, Oct. 10.—The trial of Mah Yin, charged with the assassination of See Choy, is in progress here. The best legal talent in the state is engaged in the case, which is a most peculiar one and attracts much attention among Chinese residents.

The assassin and his victim were both high members of the Chinese Masonic order. The murder was perpetrated in a Masonic lodge during its session. The motive prompting the deed is not known.

Mah Yin's counsel claim that the defendant is innocent and that the murder was committed by another Chinese Mason, who was permitted to make his escape while all the members of the order are endeavoring to have the innocent man convicted. It is claimed that See Choy was murdered for divulging some Masonic secrets. The whole case is involved in much mystery.

AN ERRAND OF MERCY.

A Ship Load of Provisions for the Starving Inhabitants of Labrador.

QUEBEC, Oct. 10.—A large steamer will leave for Labrador this week, loaded with fuel and flour to alleviate the sufferings of the poor fishermen and their families. The fisheries have proved almost a complete failure, cod and mackerel have disappeared and porpoise have been so scarce that the oil factories have had to close down, throwing a number of hands out of employment. These men have been obliged to beg for a living, as food has reached such fabulous prices as to be entirely out of the reach of the poor.

Their supply of flour has been exhausted and to add to their sufferings, a heavy snow made its appearance and many have died of it. The sufferings of the women and children beggar description, little ones dying in the arms of their mothers who have no nourishment to give them.

Attempted to Drown His Daughter—An Old Case—Sentenced for Life.
HALIFAX, Oct. 10.—A crime and sentence unprecedented in the history of this province is reported. Two months ago Levi Snow attempted to drown his daughter, aged twenty-one, because she persisted in leaving company with a young man against his wishes.

The young woman had her father arrested on a charge of committing a brutal assault on her nine years ago, when she was under twelve years of age. Judge Ritchie said that while death was the extreme penalty of the crime he would only sentence the prisoner to the penitentiary for life.

Snow is a fisherman, forty-five years of age. His wife attempted, and appeared to be satisfied with the sentence.
